A Checklist

Do for responsible social media use as a college student

1) Keep privacy settings updated — Control who sees your content.
2) Build a positive personal brand — Share achievements, projects, and internship.
3) Take regular breaks — Protect your mental health and study focus.
4) Be respectful and kind — Treat others online like you would in person.
5) Fact-check before sharing — Verify news from trusted sources.

Don'ts for responsible social media use as a college student

1) Don't share personal info publicly — Address, phone, bank details are risky.
2) Don't post negative comments - About college, professors, or classmates.
3) Don't share your real-time location — It's a safety risk.
4) Don't use social media during class — It kills concentration and grades.
5) Don't trust suspicious links or strangers — Common scam targeting students.